MARCH 2023

March Music Workshop: Music Olympics!

Our most popular Music Workshop is back for 2023! Music Olympics is packed with fun activities to supercharge your music knowledge!

Any age or level can join us on Saturday, March 11, from 2:30-4:00 p. We'll play Balloon Badminton, throw some Note Darts, try our hand at Music Trivia, and run some Rhythm Races! There will be lots of chances for you to score points and learn more about rhythm, notes, and musical terms, all helping you reach your next Musical Milestone. Be sure and sign up today as spots are limited and tend to fill up fast!

Announcing Our Spring 2023 Music Recitals!

We are excited to announce that our Annual Spring Music Recital for the 2022-23 Season is returning to the Recital Hall at UNO! All music students are invited to participate by performing one piece for each instrument studied. Even beginners can show off their new skills and how much they've learned this year! Our Instructors will help each musician select the perfect piece to showcase their special talents. Our recitals are low-stress, low-pressure, fun times for sharing with family and friends. While our recitals aren't mandatory, we hope that everyone can participate.

Spring recitals will be held on Saturday, June 3, between the hours of 12:00 and 6:00 pm (show times to be determined). Year-end awards will be handed out following the performances, and group photos will be taken. We also collect food donations for the Gretna Food Bank at our Spring Recitals, so we invite performers and guests to bring items that will help needy families in the area.

Participation forms will be going out this month both in your Family Folders and electronically. If your Musician plans to perform in the recital, you can simply drop off your form or return the Google form checked "yes", and we'll take care of running the participation fee on March 31. If your Musician is not able to perform, please return your form by March 30 to prevent your account from being run. We truly hope all are able to perform, and celebrate the culmination of this year's hard work and dedication!
